_____ Stephen Gilbert, Larissa Nazarenko, Renee De Long, and Kate McCarroll.

_____ called the meeting to order at 11:30 A.M.

Stephen Gilbert.

Motion 1: _____ approve the November 16, 2021, minutes; motion seconded; motion approved. [two abstentions]

_____ Shared a concern that some students who still live with their families are experiencing conflict in regard to conflicting views of vaccine mandates.

_____ No items listed under consent agenda.

_____ reported that the subject of _____ was discussed in the regular meeting with the College President and Vice President of Instruction. The purpose is to have more part-time faculty be involved in college affairs. They would like to invite the Part-Time Caucus to join in those dialogues. There will be more information to come, as part-time senators expressed interest in being a part of this or inviting other active part-timers to join. Their plan with the _____ is to meet in early February 2022 to establish the timeline and the scope for the review of the Faculty Handbook. The Office of instruction is taking the lead on the overall updating. They are specifically looking for those areas of faculty purview. Along stated that there is one development to report back to the Senate, that the Visual Arts Department has withdrawn one of the two positions they had put into contention; they have withdrawn the request for an art history position. That withdrawal raised the level of the other contenders underneath them and placed the item of the 3D Sculpture Studio Art professorship among the eleven positions that had been sent to President Suarez for her consideration. No action is required by the Senate,

Whereas the OCC CLEEO Project provides cross-cultural competency, learning opportunities, and experiences for the campus community;

Whereas the UMOJA Community Program is a state-wide mandated program with the vision dedicated to enhancing the cultural and educational experiences of African American students from the perspective of the African Diaspora, that is, acknowledgement of the displacement of African American students in higher education which still continues to exist to this day;

Whereas the UMOJA Community Program believes that when the voices and histories of students of color are deliberately and intentionally recognized the opportunity of self-efficacy emerges and a foundation is formed for academic success;

Whereas the UMOJA Community Program actively serves and promotes student success through ethic of love and a curriculum and pedagogy responsive to the legacy of African and African American Diaspora leading to academic excellence in all fields of study;

Be it Resolved that OCC create and provide support for two distinct and mutually exclusive spaces for both the OCC CLEEO Project and the UMOJA Community Program both of which work toward providing service and support for students and the campus community.

asked for brief clarification on the second M on STEMM; Senator Cuellar said it stands for Medicine.

asked what happens in terms of the actual decision in a resolution of opinion.

stated that the decision goes through the normal college processes. There are two parts by far the most popular and quickest-filling classes were the ones that were online." For those of us who looked at other campuses, we saw that as well.

COVID has affected all aspects of safety, hours of work, curriculum, etc., so therefore both the Senate and the Union are advocating for faculty purview and faculty choice. Expertise in faculty purviews should be valued. It should be cultivated. It should be sought out first and followed in the 10+1 as rely primarily before any ensure protections for faculty purview, and to go through a process. Since times have changed, he is not sure this particular model will work now.

stated that they did have an actual run-
