

COLLEGE

OCC Student Thien Nguyen Selected as Jack Kent Cooke Scholarship Recipient

Orange Coast College student Thien Nguyen has been selected as the recipient of the Jack Kent Cooke Scholarship for the 2017-2018 academic year. The scholarship is awarded to students who are currently attending college and have demonstrated exceptional academic achievement and leadership skills. Thien is a student at Orange Coast College and is currently studying for a degree in Business Administration. He has been a member of the Phi Kappa Phi Honor Society and has served as a member of the college's student government. Thien is also a member of the Orange Coast College's Phi Kappa Phi Honor Society. He is currently a student at Orange Coast College and is currently studying for a degree in Business Administration. He has been a member of the Phi Kappa Phi Honor Society and has served as a member of the college's student government. Thien is also a member of the Orange Coast College's Phi Kappa Phi Honor Society.

Orange Coast College student Thien Nguyen has been selected as the recipient of the Jack Kent Cooke Scholarship for the 2017-2018 academic year. The scholarship is awarded to students who are currently attending college and have demonstrated exceptional academic achievement and leadership skills. Thien is a student at Orange Coast College and is currently studying for a degree in Business Administration. He has been a member of the Phi Kappa Phi Honor Society and has served as a member of the college's student government. Thien is also a member of the Orange Coast College's Phi Kappa Phi Honor Society. He is currently a student at Orange Coast College and is currently studying for a degree in Business Administration. He has been a member of the Phi Kappa Phi Honor Society and has served as a member of the college's student government. Thien is also a member of the Orange Coast College's Phi Kappa Phi Honor Society.

U.S. Dept. of Transportation Designates OCC Waterfront Campus 'Center of Excellence'

The U.S. Department of Transportation has designated Orange Coast College's Waterfront Campus as a 'Center of Excellence' for its work in the field of maritime education and training. This designation is a recognition of the college's commitment to providing high-quality education and training for the maritime industry. The college has been a leader in maritime education for many years and has a long history of providing students with the skills and knowledge they need to succeed in the industry. The college's Waterfront Campus is a state-of-the-art facility that provides students with a hands-on learning experience. The college has been a leader in maritime education for many years and has a long history of providing students with the skills and knowledge they need to succeed in the industry.

A
C E
OCC

M
A
MA AD
C E
D
MA AD

C
C

C C C J D

C E MA AD
MA AD

OCC C D H
O C C
J

P I B
OCC N H

Coast Students to Partner with Local Nonprofit to Build Homes for Earthquake Victims

A BIM P I O C C A
I D A G
D
OCC
A D A DA
M E P P F F D R
F CAD M A OCC
C BIM P I
A
F CAD
A DA
A L A
A DA
F CAD M
A

Second Harvest Food Bank Selected as OCC Community Partner of the Year

OCC Community Partner of the Year

Second Harvest Food Bank was selected as the OCC Community Partner of the Year for 2023. The award recognizes the bank's commitment to community service and its partnership with the OCC. Second Harvest Food Bank is a leading provider of food assistance in the region, serving over 1 million people annually. The bank's partnership with the OCC is a testament to its dedication to social responsibility and community support.

The award was presented at a ceremony held at the OCC headquarters in Washington, D.C. Second Harvest Food Bank representatives were joined by OCC officials and other community leaders. The award ceremony highlighted the bank's ongoing efforts to address food insecurity and support vulnerable populations in the region.

Second Harvest Food Bank's commitment to community service is a core value of the organization. The bank's partnership with the OCC is a key component of its social responsibility strategy. The bank's ongoing efforts to address food insecurity and support vulnerable populations in the region are a testament to its dedication to social responsibility and community support.

OCC Community Partner of the Year

Second Harvest Food Bank was selected as the OCC Community Partner of the Year for 2023. The award recognizes the bank's commitment to community service and its partnership with the OCC. Second Harvest Food Bank is a leading provider of food assistance in the region, serving over 1 million people annually. The bank's partnership with the OCC is a testament to its dedication to social responsibility and community support.

OCC Marketing & PR Dept. Nabs Six State Public Relations Awards

OCC Marketing & PR Dept. Nabs Six State Public Relations Awards

The OCC Marketing & PR Department has been recognized with six state public relations awards for its outstanding work in 2023. The awards, presented by various state public relations associations, honor the department's innovative and impactful communication strategies. The department's success in these awards is a testament to its commitment to excellence in public relations and its dedication to promoting the OCC's mission and values.

The awards include the [State Name] Public Relations Award, the [State Name] Public Relations Award, and the [State Name] Public Relations Award. The department's work in these areas includes developing and implementing comprehensive communication plans, managing crisis communications, and engaging with key stakeholders. The department's success in these awards is a testament to its commitment to excellence in public relations and its dedication to promoting the OCC's mission and values.